Step aside John Nettles, TaleGate Theatre is in town! Welcome to the quaint county of Midsomer and the quiet hamlet of Midsomer-on-the-woe. There is no sign of the bustle of the city here where all that can be heard is the tweeting birds and the blood curdling scream of a fresh victim breezing through the air. The people who dwell in this village are not as clean as their facades present. You will discover it is not easy to keep up appearances as the evening of the county fair continues. It is not all cake and more tea Vicar when there may be a serial killer on the loose. It is up to you, the prestigious judges invited to the fair to judge the largest vegetable competition, to find the murderer. Was it the vicar? The leader of the W.I.? Or any number of other inhabitants of this doomed town. Only time will tell...
